

Public Announcement from Paulie Zink

Firstly, I would like to express my gratitude to Inside Kung Fu Magazine for graciously granting me the use of their public forum.

I would like to set forth the following clarifications in response to statements that have been made on the website Monkeykungfu.com which were recently brought to my attention.

1) To my knowledge, Grandmaster Chan Sau Chung and my teacher Master Cho Chat Ling are the only two senior leading authorities on the art of Monkey Kung Fu.

2) I never gave Michael Matsuda my permission to offer certification for Monkey (Tai Shing) Pek Kwar Kung Fu.

3) I never taught the entire system of Monkey and Pek Kwar Kung Fu to Michael Matsuda. I have never taught the entire system of any art transmitted to me by my master to any student. I have never appointed any student as complete successor to me. However, I do have students to whom I have taught more Kung Fu forms than I taught to Michael Matsuda. In my opinion, these students are exceedingly more skillful at Kung Fu than Matsuda is.

4) I have several students who have had my approval for many years to teach Monkey Pek Kwar Kung Fu (including Jim Muse Furtado).

The following students are now the ONLY students approved of by me to teach Monkey Pek Kwar Kung Fu. They include Lloyd Tamanaha, Craig Balcom, Jeannine Warren, Jim Muse Furtado, and Damon Honeycutt.

Furthermore, I am currently teaching the five Monkey Kung Fu forms (The Tall, Stone, Lost, Wooden, and Drunken Monkeys) to several students. I also plan to teach Monkey Kung Fu workshops open to the public that will be hosted by Temple of the Monkey in New York City (www.templeofthemonkey.org), and by Monkey Kung Fu Academy in Whittier, CA (www.musemartialarts.com).

Michael Matsuda has no right or permission to speak on my behalf. I have dissolved my affiliation with the U.S. Tai Shing Pek Kwar Association.

I have dissolved my personal friendship with Michael Matsuda.

I have expelled Michael Matsuda as my student.
